NOTE—Contn. sheet

Submitted to His Highness.

During my visit to Kunigal in January last, I found that Mr. V.S.Vasudeva Rao, who was the Amildar of that Taluk till recently and who is now acting as Assistant Commissioner in Mysore, was personally responsible for the maladministration of the Kunigal Taluk. I considered that he was unfit to be confirmed as an Assistant Commissioner. (Vide extracts from my inspection report).

2. The action to be taken in regard to this officer was considered in Council at their meeting held on the 20th March 1919 and they are of opinion that Mr. V.S.Vasudeva Rao may be reverted to Amildar as soon as a suitable officer is available to take his place and that his name may be removed from the list of Amildars eligible for appointment as acting Assistant Commissioners. This officer is third class Amildar (acting in second class) not fully qualified for an Assistant Commissioner's place.

3. The recommendation of the Council may be graciously approved.
